

iMemo is a multi-message voice recorder that has a wide variety of uses and applications.

iMemo enables you to record any number of separate individual messages within the 2 minute recording time. For example - record 24 separate 5 second messages or maybe 12 separate 10 second messages, there is no restriction for the combination of messages that you record.

iMemo has many uses at home or at work. You can Play, Skip or Erase individual messages as required. It's perfect for recording your shopping list, storing telephone numbers and addresses or recording daily voice memos.

iMemo could also be used as a communications device within a Special Needs environment.

iMemo is powered by four AG13/LR44 Button Cell batteries, which are included and replaceable. (Recorded messages are saved in the memory, even when the batteries are replaced.)
